A Rosary for Peace in Sudan

The people of both north and south Sudan need our ongoing prayer as they continue to seek peace and stability in the region. On the weekend of July 9, when the Republic of South Sudan will be officially recognized, pray the Rosary for the people of the region. After each decade include one of the following prayers.

1. That north and south Sudan be blessed with peace. We pray...
Lord hear our prayer.
2. That violence ends in Darfur so that reconciliation may begin. We pray...
3. That the region receives assistance it needs to provide adequate health care for its people. We pray...
4. That the world assists the new nation of the Republic of South Sudan in its rise from poverty. We pray...
5. That the borders between north and south Sudan be places of peace instead of conflict. We pray....
6. For the children of Sudan that they may know an end to hunger, disease and violence. We pray....
7. For the leaders of north and south Sudan that they may be graced with the Spirit's gifts of wisdom and right judgment. We pray....
8. That the rich mineral resources of the region be stewarded well and used in a way that benefits all its people and safeguards God's creation. We pray....
9. For the people of north and south Sudan that they may receive the education and resources they need to develop a strong civil society. We pray....
10. For the Church in north and south Sudan that she may continue to show courageous leadership in her work for peace, prosperity and justice in the region. We pray....
