

VOICE Public Gathering about Foreclosure Crisis and Community Reinvestment in Prince William County

On October 30th VOICE (Virginians Organized for Interfaith Community Engagement) member institutions will hold a public gathering with more than 1,000 people to celebrate progress on their recent campaigns, especially their work to address the foreclosure crisis in Prince William County, Manassas, & Manassas Park.

The action will be an opportunity to celebrate successes (in Prince William County and across Northern Virginia) and to announce next steps to address local reinvestment needs.

Senator Mark Warner (D-VA) and senior bank executives will be in attendance.

This event is part of a campaign that VOICE began in April 2011 to hold financial institutions accountable for their role in the foreclosure crisis in Prince William County, Manassas, and Manassas Park. Come learn what has happened through VOICE cooperation and action, as well as the work that remains to be done.
