EACH OBLATE REFLECTS & ACT

Each Oblate and every Oblate community, ministry, and institution, will undertake a process of reflection and concrete action leading to a "prophetic and contemplative lifestyle" (LS 222), an "attitude of the heart" that looks at creation with the eyes of our crucified Savior (C 4), and with Jesus' look of love (LS 226; cf. DISCERNING NEW MISSION

The 37th General Chapter recommends that the Superior General and Council discern the possibility of opening a new mission in Ecuador, in collaboration with the Conferencia Interprovincial Oblata de América Latina (CIAL), as a concrete opportunity to renew ourselves in our missionary identity, to care for our common home, and to accompany in a special way the native peoples, in coordination with La Rete Ecclesiale Panamazzoneca (REPAM).
